

SCAN1 has been identified in a single Saudi Arabian family. It has not been identified in other ataxic individuals. The diagnosis of SCAN1 is made on history and clinical signs as listed above. DNA testing for mutations in TDP1 is only available on a research basis.