

Achondrogenesis affect males and females in equal numbers. Achondrogenesis type IA and type IB are very rare disorders and prevalence for them is unknown. Achondrogenesis type II occurs in approximately 1/40,000-1/60,000 newborns.