

Since ring chromosome 4 was originally described, approximately 40 affected individuals have been reported in the medical literature. Males and females appear to be affected relatively equally.